MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 27th December 1952

No. 1429.—The Central Government is pleased to make the following regulations relative to the wearing of the Indian Blue Ensign defaced by badges of ships owned by organisations under the Ministry of Transport.

Ships owned by organisations under the Ministry of Transport, except the Light House Department and the Port Trusts.

Indian Blue Ensign defaced by an Ashoka Lion Capital superimposed over the shanks of the anchor in the central position. The defacing is to be done in light golden colour.

Ships of the Light House Department.

Indian Blue Ensign defaced by a Light House Beacon in the central position with two white light beams extending horizontally from the beacon. The defacing is to be done in light golden colour.

4. Badges of office referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 above are to be displayed in the centre of the Fly, the dimensions of the badge not exceeding that of a circle whose diameter is 13/30th of the width of the Flag. The Fly is the half of the flag farthest away from the mast.

NAGENDRA SINGH, Dy. Secy.

N. 1430.—In the Civilians in Defence Services (Revision of Pay) Rules, 1947, the following amendment shall be made:—

In the Schedule to the said Rules, under the heading "Medical Directorate", Sub-Heading 'Station Sanitary Organisation' against the Post of Malaria Inspectors in the column for existing scale:—

For '95—125',

Substitute '90—150'.
